Strengthening Families, Reducing Poverty , Building Communities

Dear Friends,

Our annual report is an opportunity for us to share the work we have accomplished over the last fiscal year and a method to let you know how we are meeting the mission of the agency. We often hear the question; what does Catholic Charities of Idaho do? This is a question that we continue to respond to all over the state as we work diligently to spread the good news of our work in strengthening families by providing services that help families solve their problems, building community through our efforts in advocacy about issues like healthcare, education, nutrition, and housing, and reducing poverty so that families can become economically secure and provide for themselves and their children.

We want to share a story about Rosie who reached out to us in need this year. Rosie has two small children and this past year she had to evacuate her mobile home, with 26 other families, due to safety issues. Rosie is a single parent with limited resources and no familial support network. In the process of working with Rosie to find affordable housing, we discovered she was having difficulty putting food on the table even though she was working full time. Moving meant she could no longer use her neighbor for child care and was afraid to lose her job. She used every bit of courage she had to report her husband to the police due to a long history of domestic violence. She was alone, afraid and unsure where to turn for help. Catholic Charities of Idaho was able to assist Rosie in finding permanent housing, connecting her to child care programs, and assisting her with filling out the paperwork at St. Marks food pantry so that she could feed her two children. Our domestic violence immigration caseworker is working with Rosie for immigration eligibility. Rosie's problems are far from over, but she found some refuge in knowing we would help her.

The issues of poverty faced by children, single parents, immigrants and working families is what our mission is all about at Catholic Charities of Idaho. We have been called to serve the most vulnerable families regardless of religion or background. Jesus calls us to "to serve the least of these, to hunger and thirst for justice and to be peacemakers on earth," we respond to this call every day. We want to thank you for your endless prayers and support over the last 7 years. During this coming year, we ask you to consider a "greater gift" to our agency in time, talent or treasure. We need your help in becoming more sustainable and in continuing the work we have been called to do.

Peace and Blessings,

2006/2007—a Year to Focus on Strengthening Idaho's Families

During 2006/2007 Catholic Charities of Idaho moved closer to its goal of establishing a full-service Family Strengthening Center in each of six regions in Idaho. Services available at each site are based on local needs and funding to support the service. Family Strengthening Services include:

Parenting Education & Support

- Idaho Dads Matter!™ - Counseling and Parenting Support
- Literacy as a Pathway to Economic Stability English Language Learning and pre-literacy development
- Financial Literacy

Being a dad is more important than I ever realized. Even though I can't live with my son, we have a long-distance relationship. He knows I'm there for him and he can tell his friends he had a "dad" not just a father. Thanks to CCI's program "Idaho Dads Matter!"™ I reconnected with the most important person in my life.
(Tom, Boise)

Marta had to drop out of school in Mexico in the 8th grade. By attending CCI's literacy program she has managed to attain her GED and plans to go to college with her son and daughter!

Elderly and Homebound Support

- Volunteer outreach to frail elderly and homebound individuals
- Respite and support for families and caregivers dealing with severe memory loss
- Aurora Centro - Drop-in center for seniors with memory loss in Owyhee County

80-yr old Mrs. Arroyo could no longer care for her mother by herself. Volunteers from CCI come to the house to help with chores and staff brings the ladies to the Homedale drop-in center on Thursdays for their weekly social outing. Because of the services offered to these remarkable seniors, the Arroyos are able to stay at home together.

BEACH (Building Excellence in Academics, Character and Health)

- Before and After School Programs
- Summer Youth Camps
- Youth Development Activities
- At-Risk Prevention Services

Citizenship & Family Reunification

- Orientation and Assessment
- Family-based Applications
- Citizenship Classes
- Naturalization Applications
- Domestic Violence Immigration Program (DVIP)

Information & Referral

Linking families who are need of vital information about resources and services in the community. Over 1500 served in 2006/2007.

Counseling

Individual, marriage and family

Albert came for counseling because he was suffering such anxiety that panic attacks were keeping him from living his life to the fullest. By following the advice of his counselor and practicing his breathing and imagery exercises Albert was able to get a job and re-enter the world.

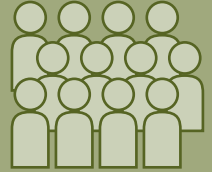

Crisis Intervention

Assistance to families who are dealing with an immediate life emergency using solution-based problem solving and intervention.

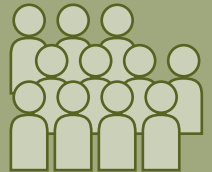

"We thought the world had ended when we were evicted because of the closure of our run-down mobile home park. Actually, with help from Catholic Charities, it was the beginning of a new life in our own mobile home in a safe and secure park." (Vega Family)

2006/2007 - a Year for Social Justice & Advocacy

Catholic Charities of Idaho's mission includes working with organizations and individuals of good will to help build a more just and humane society. Highlights from 2006/2007:

Legislative Advocacy & Education

- Worked with Boise State University to engage Service Learning Students in public policy advocacy and social justice issues.
- Supported efforts to eliminate the grocery food tax/raise the food tax credit.
- Supported a Health and Welfare rule change which would improve access to TAFI and Food Stamps by advocating for a first vehicle set aside in the eligibility requirements.

Parish Social Ministry Training & Education

- Various parish presentations on Parish Social Ministry and Advocacy
- Presentations to parishes on "Communities of Salt and Light" project
- Visited 25 parish and recruited "liaisons" to CCI

Community Building & Collaboration

- Interfaith Sanctuary Homeless Services: Collaborated with various interfaith and social service organizations to establish Interfaith Sanctuary, an emergency cold weather shelter for individuals and families experiencing homelessness.
- Hurricane Katrina Response and Recovery: 2006/2007 was a year for many victims to try to re-establish their lives. CCI worked closely with the state of Idaho and with the Idaho Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster to support those who chose to remain in Idaho.
- Human Trafficking: Worked with community groups throughout Idaho to present a statewide campaign of awareness and education about the reality of human trafficking in Idaho and the rights of victims of this crime.

"I was shocked to learn that there are victims of human trafficking here in Idaho. I would never have believed that safe houses exist in my own community if I hadn't attended the Awareness Training in Moscow." (Jo, Moscow)

Campaign to Reduce Poverty in Idaho

A state-wide initiative of Catholic Charities of Idaho to engage faith leaders, business leaders, government officials, social service providers, and concerned citizens in a multi-year campaign to educate on the realities of poverty in our state and to advocate for public policy change that will help individuals and families break the cycle of poverty.

■ Regional coalitions are in the process of being formed.

Volunteers

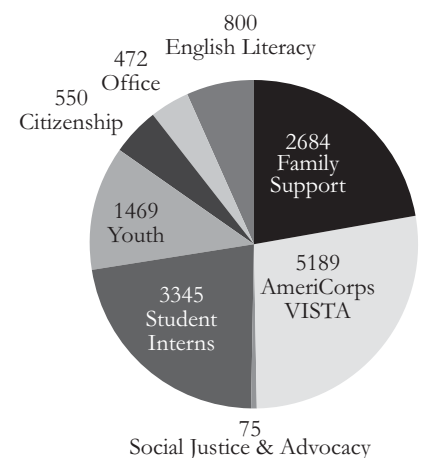

14,585

Hours

Over 14,000 hours of volunteer service helped extend Catholic Charities outreach throughout Idaho. Trained volunteers helped to:

- Mentor youth in the Jerome after-school program
- Provide clerical support at the administrative offices
- Help immigrants study for the US citizenship test
- Visit with elderly individuals and assist with light chores
- Teach English language learners
- Assist with youth camps and retreats
- Encourage lawmakers to vote for policies that promote social justice

Bishop Michael P. Driscoll's Ring of Charity

"Since I am a bishop of a diocese, I have a serious responsibility to assure that our church is living out the gospel call as closely as possible. Those who are hungry and thirsty, strangers or in prison are often overlooked in our society. We have become so busy about advancing our material well-being that we forget about the most basic needs of the poor and vulnerable around us. When we attend to them, we attend to Jesus, himself. "Whenever you did it for one of these least, you did it for me." Matt. 25: 40

Bishop Michael P. Driscoll established the Ring of Charity in 2006-2007 to honor donors that participated in the growth and development of Catholic Charities of Idaho with a gift of $1,000 or more. The Ring of Charity members will also help to sustain financial support for Catholic Charities of Idaho into the future.
