Groups help legal residents on path to citizenship

- Idaho Statesman

On Wednesday, Catholic Charities of Idaho, attorneys from the American Immigration Lawyers Association Network, and members of Idaho Community Action Network will host Citizenship Day from 10 a.m. - 8 p.m. At the Hispanic Cultural Center, 315 Stampede Drive in Nampa.

Legal permanent residents from the Treasure Valley area are encouraged to begin the process of becoming U.S. Citizens.

If successful, new citizens may be eligible to vote in the 2010 Congressional elections.
