John Dear is a Jesuit priest, author and lifelong peace activist. He has written or edited 20 books on peace and justice including Mohandas Gandhi: Essential Writings, Living Peace, and Disarming the Heart: Toward a Vow of Nonviolence. He is a practitioner and teacher of nonviolence who has been arrested over seventy-five times in acts of nonviolent civil disobedience. After the September 11, 2001 attacks on the World Trade Center, John volunteered as a Red Cross Chaplain, became one of the coordinators of the chaplain program and worked with 1,500 families who lost loved ones as well as hundreds of firefighters and police officers.
