

Schlichte to leave Catholic Charities

Kristan Schlichte

BOISE—Kristan Schlichte, Development and Communications director for Catholic Charities of Idaho, announced recently that she would be stepping down from her post sometime in April.

Rosio Gonzalez, executive director of CCI, stated "We celebrate Kristan's contribution to this agency during the last several years. Please join me in thanking Kristan for her work at CCI, especially during the initial development of our organization."

Catholic Charities of Idaho will begin recruitment for this position immediately.

MARCH 7, 2008