

'You Only Die Once; Do It Right' rides again

BOISE — St. Mary Church, Catholic Charities of Idaho and the Idaho Catholic Appeal are sponsoring a stewardship seminar, "You Only Die Once; Do It Right!" Feb. 23.

The event will run 8 a.m.-noon and will be held at Lowell Elementary School, 1507 N. 28th St.

The event will follow a similar format to one held in November at St. Mark Church.

Presenting at the event will be estate planning agents David Hand, Allison Gillis and Michael

Thomas, with a talk "Estate Planning/Child Custody-What You Need to Know"; and Gary Bowman on "Funeral Planning Consumer Education" and Denise Goodrich Liley, an assistant professor in the Social Work department at Boise State University, will lead a discussion on the seminar theme.

For more information call diocesan Stewardship & Development Director Jim Hughes, 342-1311, or CCI Development Director Kristan Schlichte, 345-6031.

JANUARY 25, 2008