

Roast of Idaho Governor Draws Guests to Gala

A little humor can go a long way. That's the thinking behind a political roast organized by Catholic Charities of Idaho to serve as both a fundraiser and "friend raiser." This annual black-tie-optional "Loaves and Fishes Gala" was the ultimate venue to better engage individual donors and increase relationships with Idaho state legislators and Idaho's Congressional delegation. This year's event featured a social hour, a formal dinner, a 20-minute program on Catholic Charities of Idaho, and, of course, the roast—of Idaho Governor C.L. "Butch" Otter. Roasters included U.S. Congressman Walt Minnick, Lt. Governor Brad Little, and State Senator John McGee. Boise State University President Dr. Bob Kustra served as the master of ceremonies for the evening. Governor Otter remarked that the event was "a great opportunity to put aside our worldly differences for an evening of good-natured fellowship, humanity, and humor."
