From the Bishop

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In these pages, you will find many resources to guide and support you in the journey of life. Each of us finds ourselves in different seasons and stages—sometimes secure and flourishing, sometimes weighed down by struggle or crisis. Yet in all circumstances, we are called to walk together and to seek the good of one another.

This Resource Guide was created for the sake of the common good. It gathers practical support for basic needs, mental health, and relationships, while never losing sight of the most essential need of all: our spiritual well-being. For it is in the Lord that we discover our deepest identity and our true fulfillment.

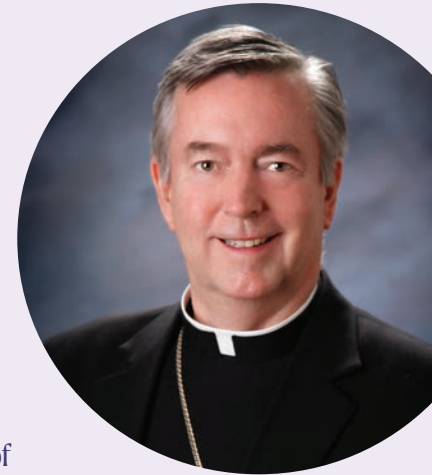

Evangelization happens in these very moments—when we extend a hand to help another, when we ourselves have the humility to seek help, and when we recognize the God-given dignity in every soul. In such acts of mercy and solidarity, we proclaim the Gospel not only with words, but with our lives.

Whether you use this guide personally, or place it in the hands of a family member, a neighbor, or a friend in need, I ask you to help spread the word. The resources contained here are meant to strengthen our communities, relieve burdens, and point us all toward the hope that comes from God.

We are all on a path toward the Lord. May this guide serve as one small but meaningful step along the way, reminding us that in Christ we lack nothing, and together we can share His love with all.

In Christ,

Bishop Peter F. Christensen
Diocese of Boise

Basic Needs

Every person deserves the dignity and security of having their most basic needs met. When daily necessities feel out of reach, it can be overwhelming—but you are not alone. This section offers resources for food, shelter, and clothing, providing a steady first step toward stability, restoration, and renewed hope. Caring for the body lays a foundation for healing the whole person.

Marriage & Family Life Office – Diocese of Boise

The mission of the Marriage and Family Life Office is to serve as a resource center for parishes in their marriage and family life ministries by listening and advocating for needs. The office provides training, guidance, and resources, organizes catechetical and enrichment events, and connects couples and families with counseling and mental health support. It also includes the Diocesan Respect Life Outreach, which partners with parishes on pro-life ministry, coordinates the annual Respect Life Mass, and sponsors the Diocesan Catholic Miscarriage Ministry:

Retrouvaille

Marriage Renewal Program

Supports couples in struggling or hurting marriages through a three-phase program of healing and renewal. Provides a weekend experience focused on communication, forgiveness, and trust, followed by post-sessions and ongoing community support. Encourages rebuilding relationships with hope and faith: helpourmarriage.org

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

Marriage Enrichment

Provides weekend experiences for married Christian couples to deepen communication, strengthen relationships, and renew commitment. Couples spend focused time together away from daily distractions, learning tools to build a richer, Christ-centered marriage: idaho-wwme.org

Young Adult

Youth and Young Adult

Evangelization - Diocese of Boise

Youth and Young Adult Evangelization serves those who minister to youth and young adults in the Diocese of Boise by supporting authentic faith formation with the guidance of the Holy Spirit and the blessing of the Bishop. Through collaboration, events, retreats, and formation opportunities, the office helps young people encounter Christ, grow in faith, and build supportive community, while recognizing the importance of emotional and mental well-being as part of healthy discipleship:
